UNANIMOUS NOMINATION OF STRONG TICKET RESULT OF REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

THE TICKET.

Representative, L. L. Mitchell.
County Judge, Morris Eskridge.
County Court Clerk, W. S. Ball.
County Attorney, Allen R. Kincheloe.
Sheriff, Dennis Sheeran.
Supt. Schools, Andrew Driskell.
Jailer, W. J. Hall.
Surveyor, R. M. Basham.
Assessor, Henry Cannon.
Coroner, Chas. Durham.

Hardinsburg, Ky., July 25.—(Special.)—The above is the ticket which was unanimously selected at the Republican county convention held here at the courthouse, Monday afternoon. The large circuit court room was crowded by enthusiastic Republicans, who certainly appeared as if they meant business. It reminded one of the convention of 1894, whose nominees swept the county like a cyclone. Everything was harmonious, and body was in the best of humor. Every precinct was fully represented.

Chairman Gus Shellman called the convention to order at 1:30 o'clock, and the call was read to the delegates by the secretary, Jno. P. Haswell, Jr. Then, on motion of Taylor Beard, the Hon. Charles Blanford was elected temporary chairman. In assuming the chair, Mr. Blanford made a short, telling speech, which met with genuine approval from the delegates. Upon the motion of Capt. J. H. Rowland the chair was authorized to appoint the necessary committees. On the Committee on Credentials he appointed Capt. Rowland, Jno. B. Bates and D. C. Heron. Achilles Dye, Peter Bennett and Henry Carmon were named as a Committee on Permanent Organization, and on the Committee on Order of Business, Milton Whitworth, D. N. Howard and Chas. Patterson were appointed.

The Committee on Credentials reported that there were no contests, and recommended that all the delegates be seated. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Permanent Organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent, which was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Order of Business recommended that the candidates for the various offices be nominated in the order in which these names would appear on the ballot. The report was adopted without amendment.

The chair then called for nominations for the office of County Judge and John M. Butler, of Custer, in a neat speech, nominated Morris Eskridge. Capt. J. H. Rowland seconded the nomination, and Mr. Eskridge was unanimously selected as the candidate for Judge. The chair appointed John M. Butler and Robert Polk to escort the nominee to the convention hall. When he appeared he was received with an enthusiastic burst of applause, which he gratefully acknowledged.

He made a strong, conservative speech, accepting the nomination, and promised an active and winning campaign.

The rest of the ticket was completed in the order in which their names appear at the head of this article, except that the Representative was nominated last. Each nominee, except Mr. Mitchell, appeared before the convention and accepted, and pledged a vigorous campaign. On behalf of Mr. Mitchell, who was unable to be present on account of illness in his family, Mr. Haswell accepted the nomination for representative, he being authorized so to do.

On motion of Hon. R. M. Jolly, the log cabin was chosen as the emblem of the party and then the convention adjourned.

The Republicans generally were highly pleased with the ticket, regarding it as one of the strongest that could be placed in the field, and they enter the campaign confident of election at the hands of the people.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING.

Hardinsburg, Ky., July 25.—(Special.)—The fifth Sunday meeting of the Breckenridge Association of Baptists will convene at this place on Friday, July 28, at 3 o'clock. On Friday evening the Rev. D. F. Shacklett, of Meade county, will preach. There will be an all-day service on Saturday. At 11 o'clock, on Sunday morning, the Rev. J. T. Lewis, of Cloverport, will preach the missionary sermon, and, in the evening, there will be preaching by the Rev. D. B. Clapp, of Louisville.

The Cloverport Male Quartette will sing at both services on Sunday.

Delegates will have homes ready for them and be met at the train, if they will notify Arthur Scott of the time of their arrival.

A MIXED FAMILY.

Patesville, Ky., July 25.—(Special.)—A mixed family of Indians, Mexicans and Spaniards camped a short distance below town Saturday night and Sunday. They were seventeen in number. One Indian woman was a fortune teller. They said they were from Indian and Oklahoma Territories and were going to Cincinnati. People came from far and near to see them and several photographs were made of them.

Goes to Improve Health.

Mrs. A. C. Sheldon, whose health has been impaired for some time, left Sunday with her children for a visit to relatives in Evansville, and from there she will go to Illinois, where she will probably remain for several months.

PICNIC WAS SUCCESS.

Bewleyville, Ky., July 25.—(Special.)—The farmers' picnic Saturday was a success. There were about 600 people present, who seemed to appreciate the effort made by the Bewleyville local union, A. S. of E., to entertain them.

Hon. Charles Blanford, Dr. P. W. Foote and Sherman Ball made fine addresses, and Mr. Gannane gave excellent readings. The ice cream, lemonade and other things in that line was a popular feature. The music was good and well dispersed throughout the program.

to a dozen owners or a like substitute. In the center of the table are grouped four crutches, around which twine festoons of flowers; miniature legs in ivory compose the handles of the knives and forks, while the piece de resistance is invariably a magnificent turkey that has been deprived of a leg before being brought to table.

He Knew His Man.

"You seem depressed."
"Yes, I've got to ask my girl's father tonight for her hand."
"Boosh! Don't be alarmed. The stern father exists only in the comic papers."
"Maybe so, but the borrowing father is a painful reality. He'll land me for a fifty to a dead moral certainty."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Her Tremolo.

"Ah, how I love to hear your daughter sing!" said Archie as he waited in the parlor. "She's practicing her exercises now, isn't she? What a beautiful tremolo."
"No," replied the mamma scornfully. "She has had the sore throat for three days. She's taking a gargle."
—Indianapolis Star.

Followed.

A servant girl had been sent on an errand. On returning she said to her mistress, "Oh, ma'am, there's been a young man following me." Mistress—Oh, indeed! Servant Girl—Yes, ma'am. I know he was a following me, because he kept looking around to see if I was coming.

Tart Answer.

"A woman's bonnet would not cost much if it wasn't for the trimming," said the miserly husband.
"Neither would a man's whiskers," answered his wife.—Chicago News.

Prof. Taylor's Training School.

To the anxious parents seeking the proper school for their boy, we would submit the Louisville Training School, of Louisville, for their consideration. This school is conducted under the personal supervision of Prof. H. K. Taylor, its principal and proprietor. The fact that Prof. Taylor is connected with this institution is the best recommendation that can be given it.

At this school a boy is taken in the rough and trained by Christian teachers and brought up under the influence of highest moral standards, so that when he has finished the boy has inculcated within him the highest ideal of manhood. The rigid military discipline a boy receives at this school makes him, in after life, a man of regular habits and firm mind. This one feature of the school, while it is not carried to the extreme, is much to be commended.

Regular study hours under the supervision of a teacher are kept daily. This is an advantage a boy has at this school over the school that permits its students to keep their own study hours. Each boy is under the personal care of Prof. Taylor throughout the session, thus insuring a year of vigorous study. Graduate professors are employed who also have constant care of each boy. Only seventy-five students are taken into the school each year. Ages from twelve years up.

Application for entrance should be made at once to Prof. H. K. Taylor, Beechmont, Ky., to insure accommodations for the ensuing year. Catalogue sent on request.

Masonic Barbecue September 1.

At the regular bi-monthly meeting of Cloverport Lodge No. 133, F. & A. M., last Friday night it was decided that the order will give its annual picnic and barbecue this year on Friday, September 1. This date is twelve days later than that on which the picnic and barbecue was given last year. The annual affair this year will be the fourth given by the lodge. The other three events were memorable successes and the Masons will exert every effort to make the one this year exceed them in point of attractions and attendance.

As the affair is over a month away nothing definite has been decided in regard to the attractions and program.

FAIR TO BE SUCCESS.

A prominent business man of Lexington was at New Seelbach last night, and was discussing the prospects of the Kentucky State Fair, to be held this fall in the Bluegrass capital by the Kentucky Breeders' Association.

"Lexington is taking hold of the project in a most enthusiastic manner, and all indications are that we shall have a great fair. There is no reason on earth why we should not. Lexington is in the heart of the finest section, agriculturally, of the State, and can draw from a country famous in song and story as the garden spot of the world. The situation is an ideal one, and with the magnificent track at our disposal, which I consider the best by all odds in the South, there is no reason why this year's fair should not surpass the wildest dreams of its promoters."

EXPECTS TO REACH POLE

North Sydney, C. B., July 23.—The Peary Arctic exploration steamer Roosevelt, which left Bar Harbor Wednesday, reached here to day with Commander Peary, his wife and daughter on board. After coaling, the Roosevelt will leave for the North to-morrow evening.

Commander Peary in an interview tonight said that he was greatly pleased with the initial long run of the Roosevelt. WANT DOLLAR WHEAT.

It is understood that the farmers of the counties of Southern Indiana tributary to New Albany have been invited to become members of a combine composed of the entire country, the purpose being to delay putting their crops of wheat on the market until the price of the cereal advances to $1 a bushel.

There must be some foundation for the report from the fact that although the market opened at 87 cents, fell a few cents and since advanced, but very little wheat is being offered for sale. In the last two weeks many thousands of bushels of wheat of fine quality have been threshed in the counties near New Albany, and but very little of the grain has been delivered in that city either by rail, river or wagons.—Monday's Courier-Journal.

Tobacco and hay have been ruined and corn and wheat greatly damaged.

More Snakes Than Ever Before.

Julio Jackson, of Tarfork, says there are more snakes of all kinds in his part of the county this summer than he has ever known before, and attributes the increase to the unusually wet weather. He and two sons have killed four rattlesnakes on his farm this month. Three of them had three, five and eight rattles respectively. They were the first rattlesnakes ever killed on his farm.
